Massage Therapy Apprentice Agreement

After a brief discussion, Mr. Ormond will obtain an opinion from the Attorney General on whether a Massage Therapy Apprentice Agreement could be added as a requirement for licensure.

Tipping in Massage Schools

Ms. Lee from the Utah Career College requested to speak with the board to determine if it was ethical to allow students to accept tips while at a school sponsored activity. Mr. Ormond reviewed 58-47-301 explaining to the board that the statute does not specify if this practice is allowable.

It was then determined to table this issue until the next meeting on May 15, 2007. Mr. Ormond will obtain an opinion from the Attorney General, review past board minutes, and review other professions statutes to determine if tipping should be allowed.

Quantum Touch

Ms. Hudonjorgensen, Ms. Sutcliffe, and Mr. Hudonjorgensen appeared before the board to determine if Quantum Touch is considered to be a modality of Massage. Ms. Hudonjorgensen explained what, and how Quantum Touch is used. Mr. Ormond then reviewed the Scope of Practice and the Division's position on Reiki. Commenting that Reiki sounds similar to Quantum Touch.

It was then determined to table this issued, Mr. Ormond will review the information for the next Board meeting on May 19, 2007.

FSMTB – Job Analysis Survey Results

The board reviewed this document, and then determined that more information was needed prior to allowing Utah licenses to take this exam. Mr. Ormond will obtain an estimated time of exam completion.
